P.C.

. This is the petition by the Workers claiming rights in the property which was to be sold. Presently the property has not been sold. If the property is sold the employees would be entitled to claim their rights in the sale proceeds according to law. It will be open to them to file whatever claims they have before the authority who is conducting the sale or before the any other authority before whom in law, they can file their grievance. With above observations, petition stands disposed of.
